

The circulation of The Review covers the field like the thevening dew; several times larger than the combined newspapers of High Point, being read in practically every home in the city and in the suburbs. Advertisers take notice.

THE REVIEW

"High Point for High Point;" that's the slogan. Keep your money in High Point; trade with High Point merchants; buy everything you can in High Point at all times; that's the foundation for a Greater High Point.

The Review is read and appreciated by that large body of people who buy four-fifths of the goods sold in High Point---the laboring people

A RIGHTEOUS CAUSE

The people embraced in the proposed new county of Aycock are thoroughly capable and anxious of setting up house for themselves with High Point as the hearthstone and it is nothing but just and right that they be given a chance to express their sentiments—all that is asked in the present fight for Aycock County. Shall we win, should be left with the untrammelled members of the legislature—those that political influences cannot sway, those who have a conscience and heart that should beckon one to do his duty—to treat others like he would like to be treated. If the court house rings and political tricksters of Greensboro, Asheboro and Lexington are to dominate and the filthy lucre and office spoils predominate, then we say "God save the state from such"—from people elected by the democratic party to carry out the principles of democracy which says plainly that the rights of the people shall be upheld, shall be respected. Then in the name of justice, fairness and democracy Mr. Legislator let us people who want something lawful, want relief, want to better ourselves—let us have the chance to register our belief.

A CRYING NEED

North Carolina is now at a crisis in her educational development, and nearly 800,000 school children of this good state are crying out for better school facilities—from a four to six months school, and we trust that the General Assembly will enact the six months school bill and compulsory attendance law as submitted by state superintendent of public instruction, J. Y. Joyner, and which is printed in another part of the paper. These measures have been adopted in strong resolutions by the State Association of County Superintendents, the State Teachers Association, The North Carolina Farmers Educational and Co-operative Union, the press association, and other civic and religious bodies, backed up by 762,607 children of school age in North Carolina crying out for better educational opportunities to better fit themselves for services in the state, to society, to humanity, and to God. We trust that the measure will become a law, and that the General Assembly will not delay the matter any longer than possible. See article of Mr. Joyner's on editorial page.

THE "MOVIE" MAN HERE

Yesterday the moving picture man began to "reel off" High Point, commencing with the residential sections. Today and Friday the public schools, manufacturing plants, etc., will be taken and Saturday afternoon the fire department will give an exhibition run on Main Street to draw a big crowd when a picture will be made of "life on Main Street." The mayor and city officials will also be photographed on the steps of the post office. It is requested that as much activity as possible be shown during the taking of the pictures.

ATTENTION PYTHIANS

Every Pythian in the city is urgently requested to be present next Monday night, work in the 2nd degree and other business. Monday night, Feb. 17th there will be a banquet for members and their friends and speeches by prominent Pythians. Please take notice.

RED MEN ATTENTION

Wednesday night, Feb. 19th, memorial exercises will be held in the wigwam to which every Red Man is urgently requested to attend. Come and bring your wife, sweetheart or paleface friend. You will hear one of the finest speeches you ever listened to and an interesting program. Be present at the wigwam next Wednesday night and learn what is expected of you.

THE ROSE IS THE PLACE

If you want to see the best in moving pictures, visit the Rose Theater. Every night a special feature. You get more than your money's worth each picture, and there are three long reels nightly. The Rose is the finest moving picture house in the state and, like the sweet scented flower, The Rose stands for everything best in motion pictures.

J. J. Welch is having a large oak in his front yard "treated" to preserve its life.

A PLEASING PLAY

"Girls Incog" Makes a Hit—Large Audience—Liberal Applause
Tuesday night at the auditorium a large crowd gathered to witness the musical comedy "Girls Incog," presented by the Misses Burkheimer, under the auspices of Friendship Hall. The play was in two acts and interesting from beginning to end. Every player was an artist in his or her particular line. Little Miss Elizabeth Cowenhaven scored a distinct hit in "Jinger Boo Man." The dancing of Misses Buncke and Woodson as well as others was good, the acting of Dr. Perkins and Mr. Chandler deserve special mention, the leading parts by the Misses Burkheimer, the supposed lovers and Betsy's friends, the old maid, in fact all did good and there is hardly any use to particularize. The play pleased immensely. Hood's orchestra furnished music for the occasion. As a result Friendship Hall received a neat sum for its part of the proceeds.

MRS. H. F. STAMEY INJURED

Fell Sunday Morning Breaking Large Bone in Left Limb—Serious Accident

Mrs. H. F. Stamey, mother of the editor while at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. F. Hoffman, on South Main Street Sunday morning, slipped up on something in the kitchen which precipitated her to the floor with much force, breaking a bone in her left limb. While Mrs. Stamey is suffering much pain and will be in a serious condition for sometime, she is bearing up fairly well under the ordeal and we sincerely trust that all will go well. Necessarily she will be confined to her bed for sometime and due to her age, being over 70 years, much concern is felt for the final outcome. Dr. J. T. Burrus was called in and set the limb.

ODDS AND ENDS

Albert A. Holton, City auditor, has resigned, to take effect Feb. 15th. Mr. Holton will travel. He made the city a good officer.

Dr. G. F. Duncan and wife are in New York where the doctor will take a special course.

The local Choral society will give a May Festival. There will be some 250 voices, comprising High Point's best vocal talent.

Of course there is some opposition to Aycock county, even in our own city as would be the case in any progressive movement here or elsewhere but the opposition is only a ripple as compared to the great wave of enthusiasm for it.

High Point's proposed new municipal building should be located nearer the center of the city. It is not good business judgment to locate it anywhere but the best place and the proposed new site is not the best place.

Are a few people in High Point opposed to a new county or is it a bigger municipal territory they are praying for. However its the new county that the vast majority want and not the "second best thing" with its attending evils.

NOTICE TO ALL DELINQUENT TAX PAYERS

I have been instructed to make levy and garnishment where same may be necessary in order to collect all unpaid City Taxes for years prior to 1912.

Costs will be added in each case and all delinquents are hereby warned to make immediate settlement in full and avoid this extra expense.

1912 taxes must also be paid without further delay as delinquent list is now being made ready for advertisement according to law.

H. C. Field,
City Tax Collector.
Feby. 5th, 1913.—Adv 1m.

We read with disgust the following appearing in a North Carolina newspaper: "They place these girls in a position where the man who takes advantage of their distress is in a measure a benefactor." The paper was referring to the fact that girls in cities were driven to ruin by low wages paid them in stores and the above quoted sentence was the conclusion drawn. A benefactor to take advantage of a girl, what a statement! What a deplorable conclusion! We do not believe such rot and we have no sympathy for any such doctrine.

IMPORTANT MEETING

High Point Industrial Club Friday Night, February 7th.

On behalf of the Committee having in charge the future welfare of the High Point Industrial Club, a general invitation is hereby extended to all citizens of the city to attend a very important meeting of this organization at the Club Rooms in the Sherrod Building on Friday night next, Feb. 7th, at 7:30 P. M.

It makes no difference whether you are a member of the Club or not if you are a good citizen of the city and want to co-operate in the important work before this organization, you are invited and urged to attend this meeting and your coming will place absolutely no obligation on you which you do not wish to assume.

Please remember the date and hour and be on hand.

By order of the Committee.
Fred N. Tate,
President.

THE RED MEN'S ENTERTAINMENT

The night of February 19th promises to be an important event for Chickasaw Tribe No. 32, Improved Order of Red Men. On this night, memorial exercises will be held, at which prominent chiefs will be present and take part, in the persons of Dr. D. L. James of Greenville, and the incoming Great Sachem, Roy C. Flanagan, of the same town. Past Great Sachem Stamey will preside. Great Jr. Sagamore W. E. Herndon will also take part. Only three deaths of members have resulted in the history of the tribe, which was organized twelve years ago. Music will be furnished by select quartettes, and an interesting program prepared. The public is invited. The exercises will be held in the large Jr. Order hall, which is also the home of the Red Men.

A VISIT TO GASTONIA

Sunday the editor, with his family spent the day at Gastonia, the new county seat of Gaston, the old capital being Dallas, where the editor was born. We found Gastonia quite a city, with a population of 10,000 or more. The city lately extended its incorporate limits, taking in a number of the mill settlements, including the million and a half dollar Loray Mills. There are now 15 big cotton mills within the incorporation. The interurban line from Charlotte to Gastonia is a great convenience, cars running almost hourly.

A government building to cost $85,000 will soon go up and at present a fine bank building and a number of others are waiting for the contractors. Gastonia shows push and energy and her citizens are loyal, true and kind. We visited at the home of Mr. D. A. Cline, a relative, who is connected with the Albion Grocery Co., wholesalers. While there we ran across Mr. Carol, at one time ticket agent here, who now holds a responsible position with the First National Bank and who is well liked.

Mr. H. Montague of Richmond, supreme Commander of the Order of the Golden Seal, addressed the members of the local lodge last night.

Gov. Craig has appointed Senator W. B. Council, Representatives E. J. Justice and N. B. Broughton, a commission to look into the freight rate discriminations against N. C.—a good move.

A dance was given at Brockett hall by the young men of the city Tuesday evening, following the play "Girls Incog."

Mrs. W. L. Stamey and children and Miss Troupe Stamey spent Sunday in Gastonia with relatives.

We beg to differ with the statement that only so and so worked for the new county. We know of several others among whom is the editor of this sheet that have accomplished good results. The loudest crowing chicken is not always the best rooster!

A number of Red Men, from this city, will go to Haw River tomorrow to attend the district meeting. W. E. Herndon is past sachem of the district and W. L. Stamey the present Chief of Records.

CHARTER GRANTED

High Point Hospital, Inc., of High Point; authorized capital, $25,000, with $10,000 paid in by J. T. Burrus, G. F. Duncan, Mary B. Burrus, C. E. Reitzel and Joseph McCravy.

PROGRESSIVE—CONSERVATIVE WRITES

To the Editor of The Review]

According to the action of the City Council Monday afternoon the tax payers of High Point will, at an early date, again be called upon to vote on the issue of bonds to the amount of $150,000, or more as follows: (1) For Public school buildings, additions and equipment, $50,000. (2) For water storage reservoir in city, pumps and equipment for same, and for the installation of a purification disposal plant for sewerage in the western section of the city, $50,000. (3) For a municipal building, including city market, fire station, and equipment, $50,000. In addition to this $150,000 there will likely be another $50,000 for the establishment and maintenance of a city hospital or in round numbers $200,000.

With the above facts stated I would like to ask if the present administration is not going a little too fast; isn't it creating a bigger bonded indebtedness than the law in its true sense in such cases allow and more particularly than we can pay for—going it blindly in a sense. Can we carry much more of a burden with the present valuation of property in the city and the high tax rate and nearly a half million in bonds already hanging over our heads? We do not want to appear "unprogressive"—you know a person these days is called unprogressive by some if he raises his voice even against an over-burden of tax—yet we believe an ounce of forethought is worth a pound of afterthought. Haven't we now and in the future will have enough necessities to look after without the extra thrown in to create a heavy enough debt. It is needless for me to go into the whys and wherefores of the past, most every citizen can judge for himself but I am content at present to sound this note of warning and then I feel like I have said what I should as a taxpayer and citizen.

Progressive-Conservative.

INDIAN CHIEF 131 YEARS OLD

Old Blackfoot, According to Legend, Will Live Forever

Seattle, Jan. 25—Wah-hai-Gun-Ta, which translated into English means Wiley Wimpuss, Chief Fire-maker, the 131-year-old Blackfoot Indian from Glacier reservation, will soon celebrate another birthday. Chief Firemaker is said to be the oldest human being in the world, having been born in the region now known as Glacier National Park, in 1781, according to well authenticated tradition.

He was the first red man in that territory to visit the great white father, and the journey to the national capital, when President Jefferson was in the White House, was a memorable event in his life. He is regarded in his tribe as an oracle.

At the time of his birth, so the Indian legend goes, the father of all spirits, standing on a Mountain, shot an arrow near his father's temple. The prophecy as interpreted by the medicine men is that he would live forever and assist the gods in their councils. The aged Indian is a chieftain of his tribe and in his younger days was a fine shot and athlete.
